THE LOCAL FIELD....

Items of Interest Picked Up By ARGUS Reporters in Holbrook and Vicinity.

Mrs. John Conner returned last Saturday from her trip to the mountains.

Hon. James Scott of Showlow was in town Monday enroute to Colorado on business.

Antonio Apache has returned from the snake dance and reports an enjoyable trip.

W. H. Burbage, district attorney, spent a couple of days with us this week attending to official duties.

W. R. Morgan was one of the visitors to this commercial center of Navajo county during the week.

C. H. Brown of Kansas City spent several days with us this week. He is looking after his sheep interests.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are prompt, palatable, pleasant, powerful, purifying little pills. F. J. Watron.

Mr. George W. Young, the genial postmaster of Young, A. T., spent a couple of days among our merchants this week.

To prevent consumption quickly cure throat and lung troubles with One Minute Cough Cure. F. J. Watron.

W. R. Campbell and F. T. LePrade of Winslow came up Monday for a final tussle with the board of equalization.

J. X. Woods of Winslow and Bishop Hunt of Snowflake were both in the county seat this week on official business.

The most dainty and effective pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are unequalled for all liver and bowel troubles. Never gripe. F. J. Watron.

H. R. Davis and wife of Flagstaff came in Monday night on No. 2 and spent Tuesday visiting friends here.

Mr. Davis is one of the oldest men in the station work of the Santa Fe Pacific.

The great success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel complaints has made it standard over the greater part of the civilized world. For sale by F. J. Watron.

Thomas V. Keam of Keam's Canyon took the east-bound train Tuesday night for an extended trip to eastern points. He expects to visit New York, Philadelphia and Washington before returning.

John L. Clark brought his family in from the mountains Tuesday. He returned to resume his duties as ranger of the Black Mesa reserve, having been transferred to the east end.

Capt. John T. Hogue came in from St. Johns Wednesday, accompanied by Manuel Ruiz, Severs Chavez and Dr. Stallman. The genial captain was one of Holbrook's earliest residents and is always given a royal welcome by old friends here.

The emergency bags sent by a church society to Kansas soldiers in the Philippines contained among the necessities a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve, the well-known cure for piles, injuries and skin diseases. The ladies took care to obtain the original DeWitt's Hazel Salve, knowing that all counterfeits are worthless. F. J. Watron.

Ben Burk and Freeman Stuart were up from Winslow and spent Sunday. Mr. Burk is one of Holbrook's old-timers, and always finds lots of welcome and plenty of physical and spiritual refreshment among old friends here.

Large sun spots, astronomers say caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you. F. J. Watron.

Hon. W. A. Parr of Winslow was in town Sunday. Mr. Parr represented Navajo county in the last legislature and is now seeking the nomination on the Democratic ticket for the same position. It behooves the Republicans of the county to find a man who can defeat Mr. Parr at the polls.

Is Joe Bargman the only Republican in Navajo county that wants office? We hope not, though we have no doubt of his ability to run the whole county. The territorial convention is called for September 24 and the county convention will meet before that time. Let us hear from the good men who are willing to serve the party and the people.

F. M. Zuck made a business trip to Winslow yesterday.

H. H. Scorse, assisted by T. H. Shufin, has placed some large orders with traveling representatives of the commercial world this week.

You can spell it cough, cough, cough, kauf, kaff, kough or laugh, but the only harmless remedy that quickly cures it is One Minute Cough Cure. F. J. Watron.

The back yards of the business houses have been cleaned up and improved in appearance. F. J. Watron was first attacked by the impulse in a mild form and several others caught it from him. Let'er spread!

We are in receipt of a pleasant letter from J. A. Morse, formerly an employee of the Apache agency. He is now located in Crestone, Col., and renews his subscription to the ARGUS.

Messrs. Rausch, Campmeyer, Johnson and Wright, Mrs. Gates, Miss Campbell and Mrs. Robinson were all in from Keam's Canyon and the Mogollon schools during the week. Miss Campbell went east and the others returned to the Canyon.

Governor Murphy and Hon. Binger Hermann have been examining the forest reserve during the past week. However this vexed question may be settled, the people of the territory will not be able to accuse Mr. Hermann of negligence or hastiness in arriving at a conclusion. His investigations have been thorough and his conclusions we believe will be honest and right.

The progressive nations of the world are the great food consuming nations. Good food well digested gives strength. If you cannot digest all you eat, you need Kodol Dyspepsia cure. It digests what you eat. You need not diet yourself. It contains all the digestants combined with the best known tonics and reconstructives. It will even digest all classes of food in a bottle. No other preparation will do this. It instantly relieves and cures all stomach troubles. F. J. Watron.

There was a Democratic primary last Saturday at which A. F. McAllister, A. M. Boyer and J. H. Richards were elected delegates to the county convention at Winslow today. Judge Jackson was present and voted. We have made a careful search for some other guilty one, but have not found him. Mr. McAllister is a resident of Winslow and a delegate from that precinct also. The judge's modesty would not permit him to elect himself all by himself, and so he was obliged to leave town to find the third necessary Democrat.

J. F. Woods returned Friday morning after an absence of nearly a month. He did not return alone, for in the course of his journeyings to and fro he reached Sturgis, S. D., and there took unto himself a bride. Miss Rowena Harris was the young lady's name and the ceremony that made Mrs. Woods and a resident of Holbrook was performed on the 8th inst. Since that time the bridal company have been leisurely coming west, stopping at Denver and other points along the way. The ARGUS joins Joe's friends in welcoming him and his bride, and wishing them much happiness and plenty of years in which to enjoy it.

A WONDERFUL CURE of Diarrhoea.

A PROMINENT V.A. EDITOR Had Almost Given Up, But Was Brought Back to Perfect Health By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Elliptical, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and I feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore.

NEIGHBORING NEWS

Pinedale.

Mariah Johnson and Bishop Peterson went to Taylor Tuesday.

Mrs. George Tenny went to Taylor to stay a few days with her mother.

Lars Peterson, Tom Sauls and Mr. Fowler, the genial school teacher, were in town this week.

Claud Youngblood was up from Taylor and took in the dance Monday night. We had a very nice dance.

Ben McNeil and his brother Dan left suddenly for Mexico one night last week, taking with them one of the prettiest girls in this part of the woods—a clear case of elopement.

Everyone seemed to be on the horse race this week. There were three races run in one day, Mort Ramsey proving the luckiest jockey of them all. He was lucky not to have had his neck broken, as his horse ran wild in one race, jumping a 5-foot fence, with a ditch that was wide and deep on the opposite side.

A TRUE SNAKE STORY.

Snakes, Snakes Everywhere! And Not a Drop to Drink.

This is a snake story. It is a true story—as true as the Gila county snake story that is vouched for by half a dozen reputable citizens.

And we desire to say that any innuendos, any airy persiflage or suggestion from which it might be inferred that this story is not strictly in accord with the concrete truth will be considered a reflection upon our personal honor and resented a la mode Arizona.

There are not many snakes in Navajo county now, and the purpose of this narrative is to explain why. A number of years ago there was a rattlesnake metropolis in Leroux wash. It was a sort of Mecca for snakes where they congregated in large numbers.

The entrance to their weird domain was a hole about a foot in diameter, and the boys who rode and herded sheep in that vicinity respected the property rights of the snakes in the hole as the great moral teacher, Artemus Ward, has taught us to do.

But one day Francisco Gradias, alias Poncho, and Joe Broyles concluded they would kill the snakes. They had not been to town for weeks, and so felt sure they could tell a snake when they saw one. Besides Winslow was the last town they had visited, and the Winslow booze does not make snakes—it only makes the wheels in your head go round. So they provided themselves with a rock big enough to stop up the entrance to the snake city, took along guns and clubs, and went forth to reclaim the land from snake domination.

They chose a time of day when the snakes would be out, rode up quickly, stopped up the hole and began to round up the snakes.

The writhing serpents soon found that something was wrong and came from every direction. The boys shot away all their ammunition and bruised their heads with heels and clubs till they were weary, and still they came.

At last, when no more snakes could be found, they counted the slain—118 dead rattlesnakes—lying about them. They mounted their horses and rode away, sick with slaughter, nauseated with the crunch and slippery writhing of snake flesh.

The next day several of our most truthful citizens visited the scene and counted the dead snakes. They made it 119, but we don't insist on the one snake. We are willing to call it 118 in order to avoid a dispute. And remember, gentlemen of the territorial press, we have the affidavits on file.

There are no snakes in Navajo county now!

Many Thanks, Brother, But—

We are in receipt of a cordial invitation to attend the New Mexico territorial fair at Albuquerque September 18 to 22. We also gratefully acknowledge the receipt of a pass and of a "complimentary coupon ticket." This last brings tears of appreciation and gratitude to our eyes.

We have never before been so kindly remembered. It guarantees us police protection, if we obey the law; free transportation over the Santa Fe Pacific, if we pay our fare; compels street car conductors in Albuquerque to hold us on the treacherous trolley till we get to our destination and show us how to transmute snake-baked adobe into feather beds when they throw us off; gives us a right to eat all we can pay for and to ride on the elevator at our hotel if we have one; lets us sleep in any lodging house where we can find a bed within our means, and insures us a good time generally. We would like to go to the fair, but you are too kind, Brother McCreight, and we fear your hospitality. It might make our head ache.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidentially to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by F. J. Watron, Druggist.

ARIZONA'S COPPER OUTLOOK.

New Yorker's Statement of the Copper Prospects in the Territory.

Mr. B. W. Thompson of New York in a statement respecting the copper outlook in Arizona is credited with saying:

"While all the copper mines of Montana are practically located at Butte, in an area of less than three square miles, and nearly all the Michigan copper is produced from an area but little larger, there are three large copper districts in Arizona, viz: Jerome, Bisbee and Clifton. These districts produce eleven-tenths of the copper of Arizona."

"In the Jerome district is situated the United Verde mines, principally owned by W. A. Clark. This property earned over $3,000,000 in 1899. In the Bisbee district is situated the Copper Queen mine, owned by Phelps, Dodge & Co. In the Clifton district are situated the mines of the Detroit Copper company, owned by Phelps, Dodge & Co., and those of the Arizona Copper company. Unfortunately the smelter of the former was destroyed by fire, which will result in a curtailment of their production for the current year."

The stock of the Arizona Copper company is chiefly owned in Edinburgh, Scotland. The net earnings of this company were $2,000,000 for the year 1899. These two companies produced 32,978,962 pounds of copper in 1899, which is an increase over the production of 1897 of 50 per cent.

"While at present the copper production of Montana and Michigan is greater than that of Arizona, yet the Montana and Michigan mines have practically reached their maximum output. The Montana mines being worked to a depth of from 1,000 to 2,000 feet and the Michigan mines to a depth of from 2,000 to 4,000 feet, while the Arizona mines, especially in the Clifton district, are only working their surface ores, not having had to go deeper than about 600 feet."

Suggests a Game Warden.

This portion of the territory needs a game warden badly. We understand there are several parties from the southern portion of the territory in the Mogollon mountains who are killing deer indiscriminately, while the law says nothing but bucks can be killed. There are several also, we are informed, killing wild turkey, and the time for killing this game is not out. The game law was made for protecting the game and should be strictly enforced. Any person who will not respect it should not be allowed the privilege of hunting—Winslow Mail.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases. F. J. Watron.
